

We advise Hungarian and international clients on the acquisition and development of real estate. Our primary focus is residential, cure hotel and office building development but we also have an extensive track record in industrial investment projects. We assist clients with the drafting and negotiation of construction and real estate development agreements and have substantial experience in ancillary matters, such as investment and acquisition finance agreements.